Is the manuscript important for the scientific community? Please write a few sentences explaining your answer	Thumb-sucking, an activity that serves as an adaptive function by providing stimulation or self-soothing, causes nail deformities, and tooth malocclusion. As various appliances aiming to cut it down have several drawbacks New suggestions are welcomed
Is the title of the article suitable? Do you have any alternative Title in your mind?	Magnetic mechanical can barrier help to abandon tumb sucking habit with fewer discomfort Seems more suitable
Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? If your answer is No, please provide suggestions	The abstract is adequate for the case reports it stands for It should be adjusted to any changes of the main text
Do you think the English quality of the article is suitable for scholarly communications? If your answer is No, please provide suggestions	Minor linguistic polishing is needed
Please provide your comments regarding the appropriateness of different sections of the manuscript.	As the text would be part of a book reproduction of an already published text is not adequate The authors can introduce some data about epidemiology and etiology of the habit Then a brief report of the pathophysioloty and then can follow a broader description of mechanical appliances with fors and cons for each of them
Do you think that the references in the manuscript are proper, recent and sufficient? If you have any suggestions, please write here.	DS Gutierrez; P Carugno Thumb Sucking StatPearls [Internet].
