

Editor's Comment:

The paper from Cameroon is a very very interesting sub-topic, if I may say.

A problem specific for that part of the world, which presents both positive aspects and benefits of cross-border trade, and negative aspects due to old memories and probably resentments.

It is ok for publishing.

1. PLEASE, in Conclusions part NO REFERENCES, even there are of the author's. All information presented are, indeed Ms. Fokum's ideas and opinions regarding the subject.

2. The References added Fokum and Bensassi to be put at their places and for these two positions to write more elements, Publisher House, or Internet site...
