Is the manuscript important for the scientific community? Please write a few sentences explaining your answer	The paper "PUBLIC SECTOR PROCUREMENT IN GHANA Volume One (1)" is a very useful research in which the impact of the public procurement process in Ghana is analysed and evaluated. The paper is important for the scientific community, but also for practitioners because it could help to design the directions of action in research and practice in particular, regarding the analysis of the public procurement process in Ghana. I mention that the topic is of great importance because through such research many opportunities for growth, development and improvement of businesses can be offered, including by studying the impact of the public procurement process in Ghana. The title of the paper is appropriate to the research carried out because the paper analyses the impact of the public procurement process in Ghana. The abstract of the paper points out some elements of the research carried out, regarding the impact of the public procurement process in Ghana. The overall objective of the research is to assess and clarify the public procurement process in Ghana. The research highlights the importance of the theme and considers the analysis that carefully examines progress and highlights the important role of public procurement in Ghana. The structure of the paper and its subsections are not in a sequential sequence and lead to the presentation of the research results. The study was based on a series of own analyses based on the specialized literature, and during the scientific approach, the opinions of analysts, researchers, experts and professionals in the field were called upon and important approaches from the literature specific to the field were indicated, respectively there are references and appropriate bibliographic sources. The research was based on appropriate methods of data collection and analysis, revealing that the public procurement system can support the public and private system, support business and economic development, reduce the risk of fraud and corruption. Therefore, the research carried out is one that contributes significantly to the field of knowledge, especially through the way in which the solutions on how to carry out public procurement can contribute to the development of the country, the efficiency of the use of funds. Perhaps it would be useful to consider the regulations at European Union level in the field of public and sectoral procurement: COMMISSION IMPLEMENTING REGULATION (EU) 2016/7 OF 5 January 2016 laying down the standard format for the European Single Procurement Document, DIRECTIVE 2014/23/EU OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 26 February 2014 on the award of concession contracts, DIRECTIVE 2014/24/EU OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 26 February 2014 on public procurement and repealing Directive 2004/18/EC, DIRECTIVE 2014/25/EU OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 26 February 2014 on procurement by entities operating in the water, energy, transport and postal services sectors and repealing Directive 2004/17/EC , DIRECTIVE 2007/66/EC OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 11 December 2007 amending Council Directives 89/665/EEC and 92/13/EEC as regards improving the effectiveness of remedies in the award of public contracts, COUNCIL DIRECTIVE 92/13/EEC of 25 February 1992 on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the application of Community rules to public procurement procedures of entities operating in the water, energy, transport and telecommunications sectors,
