PART 1: Review Comments

Compulsory REVISION comments	Reviewer's comment	Author's Feedback (Please correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. Why do you like (or dislike) this manuscript? A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	The manuscript addresses an important issue concerning the use of proverbs in the Frafra tradition in Ghana. It reviews the scholars' opinions in detail and acknowledges them well in the reference section. The researchers bring a tradition to light by addressing the core values of the community and the consequent gender relations. In the modern era of gender equality, the researchers highlight how important it is to assess the traditional views of the elders transferred from generation to generation and try to establish equality.
Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)	The title of the article is suitable. However, the researchers can think of modifications to the title to avoid repetition of titles published in different publications.
Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here.	The abstract of the article is comprehensive.
Are subsections and structure of the manuscript appropriate?	The researchers have structured the article very well by numbering the subsections appropriately.
Please write a few sentences regarding the scientific correctness of this manuscript. Why do you think that this manuscript is scientifically robust and technically sound? A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	The manuscript is structurally well-composed. It begins with a condensed abstract and proceeds to an introduction followed by an appropriate literature review. The manuscript mentions the theory it applies to the interpretation of proverbs. The methodology adopted for the study is also made clear in section no 3 of the manuscript. The section on results and discussions clarifies the main motive of the research. Concluding remarks highlight the gender relations reflected in the proverbs of the Frafra tradition of Ghana followed by the researchers' awareness of the limitations of the study. Overall the manuscript is scientifically, and technically sound.
Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form. :	The references are sufficient and appropriate. The researchers have used ample resources for the study.

Review Form2

Minor REVISION comments Is the language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	During the review and reading of the manuscript, it was observed that a word in the section "2.2 Who are the Frafras?" second last paragraph- third last line- is misspelled. The line goes like "Related to this research, this document proveds* invaluable because it displays" The * marked word needs to be corrected as it does not give a proper sense of the sentence.
Optional/General comments	Overall the manuscript is well written.
